

Basketball Personnel Gets 'Cue

The annual barbecue tendered the girls and boys basketball teams, coaches, cheerleaders, managers, their dates and parents, was held Wednesday evening at "Lazy Acres", the lake-side cabin of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hays, Jr. near Mansfield. The hosts for the occasion again this year were A. E. Hays, Jr., Henry Odum, Jr., W. D. Partee, J. W. Richardson, Otis Spillers and Robert Stanton, Jr.

The barbecue with all the trimmings fetes the basketball personnel for their fine record. The girls' team had a 19-7 seasonal slate while the Rams were run-run-up in the State AA tournament. Their overall season record was 33-4.

Highway Sign Is Center Of Interest To Cagers

THESE CHEERLEADERS and basketball players are shown at the sign on the main highway leading to "Lazy Acres" lake and cabin where the annual barbecue was held for the cage personnel on April 6th. Note the drawing of the chef with the six sponsors listed — W. D. Partee, Arthur Hays, Jr., J. S. Richardson, Otis Spillers, Robert (Red) Stanton and Henry Odum, Jr.

Cagers Have 2 Thoughts In Mind

THESE RAMS are enjoying barbecue and apparently looking forward to next season as members of the NCHS team. From left to right are: Gary Wilkerson, Terry Schell, Richard Allen, Jim Gainer and Eddie Hinton. The scene was "Lazy Acres", near Mansfield.

Hosts At Annual Barbecue At "Lazy Acres" Lake Area

BARBECUE HOSTS and coaches of the Newton High basketball personnel are shown in the photo above at the annual event held April 6 at "Lazy Acres" near Mansfield. Kneeling, left to right: Coach Tom Wortman of the NCHS girls team, W. D. Partee, Robert (Red) Stanton, Coach Ronald Bradley of the Rams. Standing: Otis Spillers, Arthur Hays, Jr., J. W. (Whit) Richardson and Henry Odum, Jr.

66