REVIEW OF SENIORS' CAREER

Through the years the basketball tradition-rich Newton County Rams have met many challenges. The 1971 season presented the biggest challenge yet with the move into the elite AAA classification.

Many so-called basketball experts predicted that the midgets of Newton County would be lost in the pack of outstanding AAA quints. This year's seniors Stuart Clive, Clay Summers, Bruce Lynch, Bubba Sammons, and Wallace Christian, were not about to let the Rams' winning ways falter.

These outstanding seniors provided the inspiration for one of the most exciting years in NCHS history. The 1971 Ram team played before turn-away crowds for most of the season. The 6AAA tournament saw three nights of gigantic crowds. The Rams played before a full house of 7,000+ state tournament fans in the Big Dome.

All of the Rams losses came in exciting and often controversial games. Two of the five losses occurred at the timer's table, a third loss occurred in overtime when the Rams had lost four starters on fouls.

Newton's tradition and class has continued to grow with the help and efforts of this year's seniors.

Stuart, Clay, and Bubba played on teams that won four region championships, four invitational tournament championships, and were State AA Runners-up one time. Bruce and Wallace were a part of 3 region championships, three invitational championships, and were a part of the AA Runner-up team.

Over the past four year period, the Rams had 94 wins and only 17 losses. The Ram seniors helped add to the record of being rated in the State Top Ten team category. NCHS has been rated in the Top Ten for 8 consecutive years.

The loyal Newton fans will long remember the many great accomplishments and records left by the outstanding seniors of 1971.
