REVIEW OF SENIORS' CAREER

The 1973-74 season goes into the record book as the worst season in modern NCHS history. In spite of a 17-9 record in their final year, the seniors have participated in many exciting games. The 1974 team reached the Region 6AAA finals and participated in the AAA State Tournament.

Seniors Mark Byrum, Greg Christian, Kenneth Henderson, Scott Maloney, and Carl Stevenson have left their mark on Newton records. They will be remembered as the last team to play in the historic Newton High gym, affectionately known as "Death Valley" to Ram fans.

Greg and Scott played on four teams that won two region championships and was region runner-up one time. They had a four year record of 83-20.

Carl played on three teams that won one region championship and was region runner-up one time. During the past three years the Rams won 61 and lost 15.

Mark and Kenneth played during the past two seasons and were region runner-up one time while helping to combine a record of 36 wins and 13 defeats.
