A PEEK AT THE PEAK ...Lady Crusaders' Rachel Black looks for a shot against Ocmulgee

Crusaders to a 40-19 advantage going into the last quarter.

Trinity scored 10 of the first 12 points in the fourth period to put the game away, their second win in their last three outings.

"We've played better lately, with a lot more intensity," said Bradley. "I think they're learning more and more about competing, they're trying and maturing."

The Crusaders starting lineup consists of three freshmen, one sophomore, and one junior.

ren with 10 led the Crusaders. Wages scored eight points and grabbed eight rebounds, and James Pettis put in seven points and also had eight rebounds.

Adams led Ocmulgee with 16 points.

Trinity plays Friday at Bulloch Academy.
