

Tiger Sharks Advance in Playoffs

Will Travel to Cottondale Saturday for Regional Finals

PORT ST. JOE 80, CENTRAL 59

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27TH

The seventh ranked Port St. Joe Tiger Sharks are one step closer to reaching the "Final Four" for the eighth consecutive year, after defeating Milton Central 80-59 in Tuesday night's regional semi-finals. The Tiger Sharks (26-6) will travel to Cottondale (29-3), a 54-49 victor over Wewahitchka, Saturday night at 8:30 ET for the regional finals.

There will not be advance tickets available for Saturday's game. The ticket booth will open at 7:00 ET, and all tickets will be first come first serve.

Seneca Chambers (25) sinks three of his game high 31 points against Milton Central.

Cottondale has a very small gym, so it would be wise to show up early, or you might not get in!

The Jaguars came out strong, draining two shots from behind the arc to take an early lead. However, Port St. Joe outmatched Central with their quickness and dominance on the boards to take a 16-11 lead by the end of the first quarter.

The Tiger Sharks turned up the pressure on defense in the second quarter, and raced out to a 42-26 lead by halftime. Port St. Joe then outscored the Jaguars 38-33 in the second half of play.

Senior Seneca Chambers had seven rebounds and made four three-pointers, while leading the Tiger Sharks with a game high 31 points. Isaiah Jenkins followed with 17 points, and Kyron Bailey added 15.

If the Tiger Sharks defeat Cottondale Saturday night, they would play the winner of the Indian Rocks Christian (19-11)/Benjamin (25-1) game on Thursday, March 8th at the Lakeland Center.
