

SPORTS

Rams Are Sub-Region Champs; Enter Playoffs

The Rams wrapped up the Region 4AA West baseball title Thursday afternoon at Chamblee as the NCHS nine posted a 7-2 victory to take the sub-region title for the sixth straight year under Coach Ronald Bradley.

Jimmy Jones led the hitting for the winners with two hits in two plate appearances. Freeman Batchelod had 2 for 4.

Hurling the clincher was Doug Bledsoe, one of Coach Bradley's "Big Three" moundsmen. The White boys — Tony and Grant are the other dependable chunkers on the team.

The playoff for the overall title of Region 4AA will probed a no-hit, no-run game at Cumming with Forsyth County as the victim. The win over Henry County made 16 innings in which White has given up only one run.

Henry C. 000 000 100—1 4 1
Newton C. 010 000 001—2 7 1

McGee and Willard. G. White and Hopkins.

Overall Region 4AA playoffs will probably begin Tuesday with either Elberton or Winder as the Rams opponent. The three-game series will be played on Tuesday-Wednesday-Thursday.

ably get underway next week. The region's winner will go to the state tournament which most probably will be held again in Rome.

The Rams have lost just two games this season. Much of their schedule has been hampered by rain and wet grounds.
Newton Co. 030 004 0—7 8 0
Chamblee 000 200 0—2 7 3

Bledsoe and Hopkins. Jenkins and Freeman.

* * * *

G. White Tips Henry Co.

Grant White hurled another masterful game against Henry County last week as he limited the Region 3AA powerhouse